

Details on Contacting

Front View:

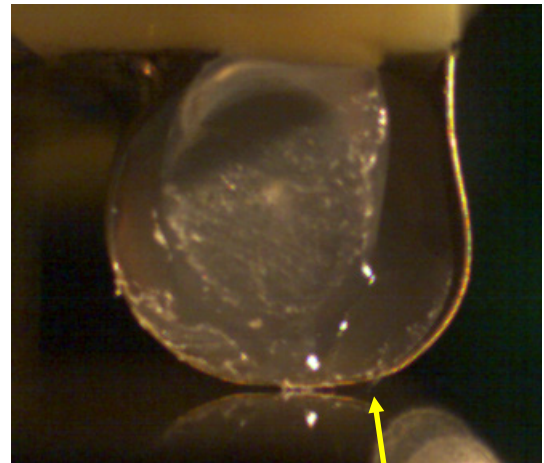

It is very important that the contact strip is aligned parallel to the surface of the laser bar!

Side View:

The contact point should be behind the middle...

... so that when the contact strip deforms under pressure, it will not block the laser beam at the front facet.